Petition for Commutation of Sentence for Tarik Shah

To: President Barack Obama
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear President Obama:

The case of Tarik Shah is an example of preemptive prosecution: a law enforcement strategy, adopted after 9/11, to target and prosecute individuals or organizations whose beliefs, ideology, or religious affiliations raise security concerns for the government. I support the efforts of Tarik’s family and supporters for commutation of his sentence.

Sincerely,

Signature

Name Printed

Address

City

State

Zip

Email

Instructions for returning the petitions:  Send completed petitions to Project SALAM, c/o Lynne Jackson, 223 South Swan Street, Albany, NY 12202. Questions: email lynnejackson@mac.com or 518-434-6659.